1.2 Theme of the Plenary Program

The theme of the plenary program of the Symposium is:

Education 5.0? The Future of Learning – the Future of Schools

You can find more information about the theme of the plenary program at:

www.educationsymposium.net/symposium/theme-of-the-symposium/

The aim of the Symposium is to contribute to developing the quality of education and subsequently contribute to achieving a sustainable education for all.

1.3 Registration for the Symposium

You can now register to participate at the Symposium 2017. Registration is possible until June 30th 2017:

www.educationsymposium.net/registration/registration-for-the-symposium/

Early bird rates as well as discounted rates for participants from transcontinental areas are available. In addition, we can offer special rates for groups. If you are interested to participate as a group, please contact Eveline Schuler (eveline.schuler@phzg.ch).

1.4 Cooperation and Patronage

The Symposium is hosted by the Institute for the Management and Economics of Education (IBB) of the University of Teacher Education Zug in cooperation with various partners:

- Association of School Leadership Switzerland (VSLCH)
- Association of Teachers Switzerland (LCH)
- Association of School Leadership Germany (ASD)
- The Swiss Conference of Cantonal Ministers of Education (EDK)

Moreover, the Symposium is supported by the Swiss Central Office for Further Education of Teachers in Secondary Schools (WBZ CPS) as well as additional partners such as universities, educational institutions, educational authorities as well as national and international associations.

State Secretary Dr. Mauro Dell'Ambrogio, State Secretary for Education, Research and Innovation will be the patron for the Symposium 2017.

You can find additional information about the partners and patronage as well as the advisory board and program committee here:

1.5 Pre-Conference: International Seminar

The International Seminar takes place prior to the Symposium 5-6 September 2017. It mainly addresses international guests and participants interested in international networking in a smaller group setting. Emphasis is put on the exchange of knowledge and experiences between practitioners and researchers across country contexts.

Groups of school leaders who participate in professional development programs are particularly welcome to the International Seminar. We have a few groups who have already signed up for 2017.

Besides a presentation of the Swiss school system(s), participants will have the opportunity to visit local schools in the canton of Zug.

You can find more information at:

www.EducationSymposium.net/program/pre-conference/

1.6 Post-Conference: Network Meetings and Workshops

The post-conference, 8-9 September, will feature network meetings (for example around the topic of school leadership research) as well as workshops (on qualitative and quantitative research methods and analytic techniques).

1.7 Additional Information

2. Educational Assessment, Evaluation and Accountability

2.1 Call for Proposals

As Editors-in-Chief, Stephan Huber and Guri Skedsmo invite colleagues to submit papers and proposals for special issues which fit the scope of the journal, and with a particular focus on the following topics:

- the influence of transnational actors for the development of assessment policies
- the role of different types of evaluation for school development and “school turnaround”
- assessment of school leaders’ and teachers’ performance
- the role of school culture and educational values in evaluating school performance
- advanced methods in evaluation and assessment

3. First National Longitudinal Study: YASS - Young Adult Survey Switzerland

What about young adults in Switzerland – what long-term trends are visible?

The new «Young Adult Survey Switzerland» of the ch-x offers empirically sound and interdisciplinary insights into the educational biographies and social and political orientations of young adults in Switzerland.

The first report presents the goals and design of the study as well as first results.
